ABRAHAM LINCOLN
PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY
Foundation

July 1, 2014 – June 30, 2015

FY 15

THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY FOUNDATION GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGES the many individuals and organizations whose contributions helped to support the educational and cultural programming of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2015. Their extraordinary generosity allows the Foundation to foster Lincoln scholarship through the acquisition and publication of documentary materials relating to Lincoln and his era; and to promote a greater appreciation of history through exhibits, conferences, publications, online services, and other activities designed to promote historical literacy.

Annual Report FY 15

From the Chair—Wayne Whalen

Wayne Whalen

On April the 9th of 1865, while returning along the Potomac aboard the River Queen from visiting General Grant in Virginia, the President and Mrs. Lincoln along with their son Tad and several guests passed President Washington’s estate at Mount Vernon. Among those traveling with the Lincoln’s was a Frenchman named Adolphe Pineton, Marquis de Chambrun, an attorney who had married into the Lafayette family and secured a minor diplomatic post to observe the progress of the Civil War. Upon seeing the grand home of the father of the nation, Chambrun exclaimed “Mount Vernon, with its memories of Washington, and Springfield, with those of your own home—revolutionary and civil war—will be equally honored in America.” Upon hearing this Mr. Lincoln quietly offered, “Springfield, how happy I shall be four years hence to return there in peace and tranquility!” Sadly the President would live only another six days before being assassinated by John Wilkes Booth and the happiness that had swept the North following Lee’s surrender was quickly replaced by shock and anguish.

The support ... that we have received over the past fiscal year allows us to continue to advance the legacy of our nation’s greatest President—so that future generations can have their own “new beginning” to the legacy of Abraham Lincoln.

When we look back over the various anniversaries we have already celebrated in 2015 and those yet to come we are struck with the idea that 1865 was a year of emotional extremes. Many across the country pondered with quiet reflection the message of the 2nd Inaugural Address, the rage and despair over the assassination of President Lincoln, and the relief and happiness over the ending of the Civil War. This December we will celebrate the ratification of the 13th Amendment which insured that “neither slavery nor involuntary servitude... shall exist within the United States.” We can imagine that 150 years ago this event was accompanied by an overwhelming sense of a new beginning. The war that had divided the nation was over and the greatest cause of that division, slavery, would be permanently eradicated from our borders. The support from the individuals, families, corporations and foundations that we have received over the past fiscal year allows us to continue to advance the legacy of our nation’s greatest President—so that future generations can have their own “new beginning” to the legacy of Abraham Lincoln.

At the commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the passing of Abraham Lincoln on April 15: (from left) Ted Flickinger, IHPA Trustee; William Shepherd and Mary Shepherd, Abraham Lincoln Association Executive Manager; Cory Jobe, Director Illinois Office of Tourism; Senator James Deleo, retired; Senate President John Cullerton; Senate Press Secretary Rakeasha Phelon; ALPLF Board Chair Wayne Whalen; ALPLF Board member Barry Hines; Donor Marilyn Kushak; and ALPLF Board member Satch Pecori.

Treasurer's Report

Treasurer's Report—Sarah Phalen

THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY FOUNDATION ENDED FISCAL YEAR 2015 ON SOUND FINANCIAL FOOTING. DURING THE FISCAL YEAR WE ACCOMPLISHED AN INCREASE IN NET WORTH OF OVER $100,000.

Our important revenue sources remain donations from individuals, memberships, corporations and foundations and the Lincoln Leadership Prize Event. Royalties from the Gift Store and Restaurant operations provide support for the Library & Museum, as 100% of the revenue is returned for use in programming, exhibits, theater, education, etc. In addition the Foundation provided direct financial support to the Library & Museum through grants, sponsorships and restricted donations.

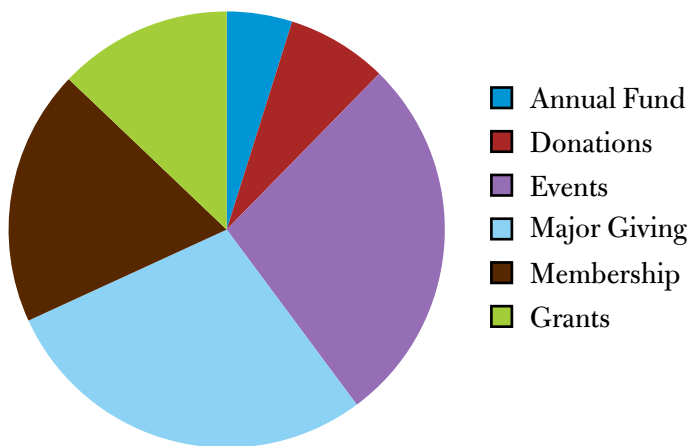

Sarah Phalen

The Taper Collection expense continues to be reduced and the Library & Museum have displayed many Taper artifacts throughout the year. Several Taper artifacts were also loaned to other museums.

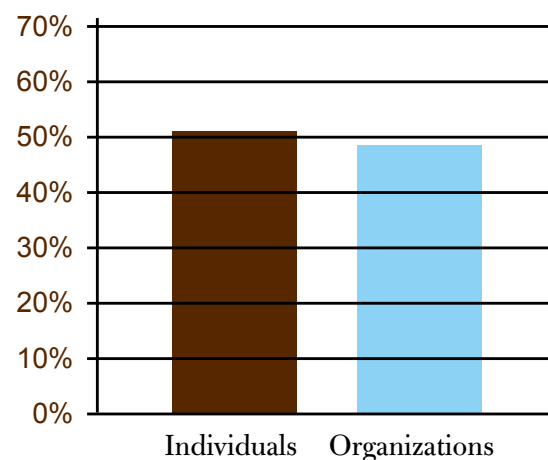

Our investment asset base is very conservatively managed with a mandate to hold 70% of our assets in bonds and short term secure instruments and 30% in diversified equities. This mix has done well in producing consistent returns with a minimum of risk and volatility over the past several years. For Fiscal Year 2015 our investment program showed a significant increase in the value of our investment assets.

We appreciate the loyalty, trust, and support from our many members, donors, and supporters at all levels. Without you, we would be unable to provide the essential financial support to the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library & Museum.

Chief Executive Officer's Report

Chief Executive Officer's Report—Dr. Carla Knorowski

2015 has been a remarkable year:

- We celebrated the 10th anniversary of the opening of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum.
- We commemorated the 150th anniversaries of the end of the Civil War, the tragic passing of Abraham Lincoln, and Lincoln's famous Second Inaugural Address, wherein Lincoln called upon our nation to move forward "with malice toward none, with charity for all."
- We will celebrate the 150th anniversary of the passage of the 13th Amendment permanently ending slavery and involuntary servitude in the United States.
- And, we celebrated the 15th anniversary of the founding of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation.

Dr. Carla Knorowski

This last anniversary, although most would say is not of the historic magnitude of those previously listed, it is certainly worth noting and celebrating because it represents 15 years of generous philanthropy on behalf of Abraham Lincoln, the people of Illinois, the United States and the world over.

Anyone who has ever worked or volunteered in any capacity for a nonprofit can tell you that there is a constant pressure and drive to raise funds. Whether it is for general operating support, endowment, capital funds or program and project-related funding, the quest for funds is relentless. Perhaps the only thing greater than the quest, is the need.

That's where you come in. If you're reading this, you're doing so because you and/or you and your business are among the many loyal and generous benefactors who have contributed to our Foundation over the past 15 years to benefit Abraham Lincoln's Library and Museum. Perhaps your gifts actually helped build the buildings in which our countless treasures are housed. Perhaps you gave to underwrite collections, programs, or exhibits. Or perhaps you provided much needed annual operating support. Whatever you've given and however you've assisted, were Mr. Lincoln alive today, I'm sure he would thank you and tell you how integral you and your contributions have been to the life and enrichment of this entity and more importantly, to those who have learned and been enriched and enlightened because of it. No, he can't thank you, but we most certainly can.

So on behalf of all of us at the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum and its Foundation, may I simply say, "Thank you," for making 2015 and the past 15 years more successful than we could have ever hoped, dreamed or imagined. As always, we could not have done it without you, our generous benefactors, and we wouldn't want it any other way. Thank you again for all you do.

'Thank you' for making 2015 and the past 15 years more successful than we could have ever hoped, dreamed or imagined. As always, we could not have done it without you, our generous benefactors, and we wouldn't want it any other way. Thank you again for all you do.'

Our Generous Donors

Permanent Home Campaign: CEFCU has given a generous five-year gift in support of our Permanent Home Campaign to purchase the priceless Lincoln artifacts that have made our institution's collection so extraordinary.

"The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum, like its namesake, is an Illinois treasure. It provides an opportunity for all ages to learn about this pivotal era in America's history, and President Lincoln's vital role in it, through engaging exhibits and programs. CEFCU is proud to support the Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum in its mission to discover, preserve, and even make history." CEFCU President/CEO - Mark Spenny

The ALPLF is grateful for CEFCU's important contribution to our institution and its world-class collection. This unparalleled collection of more than 1,500 artifacts, manuscripts and artworks spans Lincoln's entire life and provides insight into the forces that shaped the man who shaped our nation.

We are proud and pleased that CEFCU believes, as we do, that what remains of Lincoln and teaches us about how he lived is invaluable and well worth preserving.

CEFCU is a Credit Union, a cooperative owned by every member who borrows and saves here. Established in 1937, CEFCU offers a full range of financial services and serves 14 counties throughout Central Illinois.

Artifacts from the Taper Collection include Lincoln's law office clock and his presidential seal.

Donors and guests attend the ALPLM Undying Words exhibit in the Illinois Gallery this past November

Our Generous Donors

The Little Rock Nine

Members of the iconic Little Rock Nine visited the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum on May 19 for a luncheon and student reception in their honor made possible with generous support from Illinois National Bank. Six of the nine civil right icons met with more than one hundred local teens and toured the Museum after being awarded the Lincoln Leadership Prize the previous night.

In 1957, the nine black students integrated Little Rock's all-white Central High School as federal troops were sent in to ensure they could attend school over the objections of Arkansas' segregationist governor. Among the youngest pioneers of the Civil Rights Movement, these brave nine include: Melba Patillo Beals, Carlotta Walls LaNier, Elizabeth Eckford, Ernest Green, Gloria Ray Karlmark, Minnijean Brown Trickey, Terrence Roberts, Thelma Mothershed Wair and Jefferson Thomas.

Illinois National Bank generously sponsored a luncheon and program in Springfield on May 19th. President and CEO Sarah Phalen (ALPLF Board Member) welcomed local and state officials to the Library to meet and honor members of the Little Rock Nine. (L-R Rep. LaShawn Ford, Rep. Monique Davis, Superintendent Jennifer Gill, Rep. Mary Flowers, President/CEO Sarah Phalen, Carlotta Lanier, Terrence Roberts, Elizabeth Eckford, Ernest Green, Gloria Karlmark, Thelma Mothershed Wair)

More than two dozen local high school students asked thoughtful questions to six of the nine members at the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library about their experience and how they were able to face their dangerous circumstances day after day. Little Rock Nine Member Elizabeth Eckford recalled: "It was hard at times, but one thing that motivated me was realizing that for desegregation to continue, it depended on us sticking it out," she said.

Sarah Phalen, President and CEO, of Illinois National Bank remarked: "When we were asked to sponsor the Little Rock Nine luncheon and reception, we immediately said "yes" to honoring individuals who, as teenagers, had stood up to extreme adversity and helped take our country to a better place. During the Q&A session, we were proud to hear the insightful questions our local high school students asked, and amazed and educated by some of the heart-wrenching answers provided by the Little Rock Nine. INB was proud to sponsor the inspirational afternoon."

Civil War Tech: Science Adventures in History at the Lincoln Museum Helps Children 8-12 Explore Civil War Stem Technology with Support from AT&T

In a series of free “Civil War Tech” events, children will get an up-close look at the tools and machinery that the North and South used to wage war 150 years ago. They’ll have the chance to perform experiments, talk to historic interpreters and play games based on tech of the past. The program, made possible by support from AT&T, runs through summer of next year. Designed for children ages 8 to 12, it melds science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) education with history.

“As a leader in technology and innovation, AT&T is excited to support the Foundation’s new Civil War Tech program to help engage students by connecting science and history,” said Jim Maurer, vice president, external affairs, AT&T Illinois. “Our company is proud to be a founding donor of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation, and we’re very pleased to extend our support to utilize modern technology to help make important history come alive for students today.”

“We are both honored and thrilled to partner once again with AT&T as together, we, through the use of the latest technology, enhance students’ learning experiences when they visit the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum. AT&T is helping us build a better tomorrow by helping us educate our nation’s students today and we couldn’t be more grateful.” Carla Knorowski, CEO, Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation.

The Civil War Tech events generally will take place once a month, on Saturday mornings from 10 to 11 at the Lincoln Presidential Library.

The tentative schedule for the program is:

- November 7: Photography
- December 5: Railroads
- January 9: Submarines
- February 6: Ironclads
- March 5: Gatling Gun
- April 4: Artillery
- May 7: Surveillance Balloons
- June 4: Germs
- July 10 (Sunday): Hospitals
- August 6: Battle Injuries

The events will be added monthly to the presidential library’s ticketing system. To make reservations for an upcoming session, visit www.PresidentLincoln.Illinois.gov and click on “special event reservations.”

Gettysburg Replies Gifted to USS Abraham Lincoln Sailors

The Grainger Foundation, a longstanding supporter of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum, continued their generous tradition of giving not only through the provision of unrestricted support, but also in the form of a special gift to underwrite the purchase of 3,000 copies of Gettysburg Replies to be gifted to the 3,000 sailors of the USS Abraham Lincoln. In 2013, sailors from the USS Abraham Lincoln as well as U.S. Presidents, filmmakers, governors, legislators, students, artists, poets, astronauts and many others around the world were invited to write 272-word essays in honor of President Lincoln on the 150th anniversary of the Gettysburg Address.

There was a huge response as the project captured the imaginations of people across the globe and 100 of the essays including those of the three sailors from the USS Abraham Lincoln were published in the book, Gettysburg Replies: The World Responds to Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address (Lyons Press, 2015). In many respects, the book, which includes essays from five U.S. Presidents, Armed Services heroes such as Generals Colin Powell and John Borling, Tammy Duckworth, James Lovell and Medal of Honor Recipient Allen Lynch and a host of others is a primer on Lincoln and leadership and a natural addition to the personal libraries of each crew member of the USS Abraham Lincoln. When a generous benefactor was needed to underwrite the project, the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation need look no further than its longtime philanthropic partner, The Grainger Foundation, which readily took on the project.

This past June, when 165 USS Abraham Lincoln (CVN 72) Sailors were advanced to their next pay grades during a special frocking ceremony, the first commanding officer of USS Abraham Lincoln retired Rear Adm. Bill Hayden, who represented The Grainger Foundation, and Dr. Carla Knorowski, CEO, Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation joined USS Abraham Lincoln Commanding Officer Captain Ron Ravelo to provide each crew member a copy of Gettysburg Replies. Sailors were thrilled to receive the book and stood in line to thank Rear Adm. Hayden and get their books signed.

“It was a special day and a special gift made by The Grainger Foundation,” said Knorowski. “Unique opportunities like this don’t come along every day. It was an honor to be amongst the sailors of the USS Abraham Lincoln and to work in partnership with The Grainger Foundation, former C.O. Hayden and Current C.O. Ravelo to see it all come to fruition. The sailors were happily surprised to learn that they were each receiving a copy of the book, rather than having to wait their turn to read the ship’s copy. Abraham Lincoln is always a good read and reading what so many world-renowned leaders have written about our 16th President in Gettysburg Replies is extra special. Giving the books to them was a simple yet impactful way The Grainger Foundation and the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation could give back and honor the crew for the daily sacrifices they make in service to our nation.”

The Grainger Foundation has supported the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum through the Foundation since 2008, to advance the Great Emancipator’s legacy for generations to come.

A Day of Remembrance

On April 15 in Springfield's Union Square Park, the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation presented A Day of Remembrance in collaboration with the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum to pay tribute to the nation's 16th president who lost his life on that date 150 years ago.

The ceremony included a flag presentation by sailors from the USS Abraham Lincoln, remarks by Illinois Gov. Bruce Rauner, remarks by Lawton "Wilk" Wilkerson one of the famed Tuskegee Airmen, performances by acclaimed tenor Jim Cornelison of Chicago Black Hawks fame, musical tributes led by a U.S. Air Force band and a 21-gun salute followed by "Taps." A caparisoned horse was also used to honor Abraham Lincoln with the boots reversed in the stirrups to represent the fallen leader.

Speakers quoted William Shakespeare, Walt Whitman, Leo Tolstoy, then-Secretary of War Edwin

Stanton and Lincoln himself during the 45-minute ceremony that included prayers, hymns, music and a little humor from the keynote speaker, Navy Veteran, comedian, and inspirational speaker, Tom Dreesen, who focused on Lincoln's humanity, calling him "the best storytelling president of all time."

The free public event was made possible through the generous financial support of Wells Fargo Advisors of St. Louis, Mo., and Levi, Ray & Shoup Inc. of Springfield, IL.

"Historic anniversaries of this magnitude are rare, and Wells Fargo Advisors was proud to commemorate our national heritage and Lincoln's extraordinary leadership on the 150th anniversary of his passing. Wells Fargo Advisors supports the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library, Museum and Foundation in its efforts to preserve Lincoln's tremendous legacy for generations to come." Heather Hunt Ruddy, Managing Director, Regional President, Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC

Governor Bruce Rauner joined military personnel, leaders from Wells Fargo Advisors of St. Louis, Springfield officials and hundreds of onlookers heralding Lincoln as the most significant figure in American history. Governor Rauner closed his remarks by saying "If not for Abraham Lincoln, we would not exist today as 50 united states, the United States of America."

Oral History Donors

The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Oral History Program The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Oral History Program is dedicated to preserving the stories and memories of Illinois citizens. In 2015, we focused on the Governor Jim Thompson Oral History Project, which has collected over 40 hours with the governor, and nearly 200 hours on Illinois politics and the Thompson administration. Also for the Museum's tenth anniversary, Dr. Mark DePue conducted a series of interviews with those who were instrumental in creating what is now recognized as a world-class museum. Those interviewed included Bob Rogers, whose company, BRC Imagination Arts, designed the museum's groundbreaking exhibits, IHPA stalwarts Julie Cellini, Susan Mogerman and Bob Coomer, and the composer of the museum's music, David Kneupper.

In May, the Oral History Program partnered once again with WILL-TV to host a panel discussion with four Vietnamese veterans, two of whom were Vietnamese boat people. We are still adding to our collection of World War II and Korean War interviews. This year's additions include a Pacific theater POW who worked on the Burma railroad, a witness to Pearl Harbor who observed the attack from the crow's nest of the USS Nevada, and for the Korean War, a veteran of the Pusan Perimeter and that horrible winter of 1950-51. As for other Vietnam War interviews, DePue finished his extensive interview with General John Borling, who spent six and a half years in the Hanoi Hilton before resuming a long and distinguished career in the U.S. Air Force.

Finally, we are especially excited about our launch of the Teacher Resource page, which provides teachers with a series of lesson plans they can use to enhance their classroom instruction. There are lesson plans on President Truman's decision to drop the atomic bomb, on the fight over the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment that occurred right here in Springfield, and on the evolution that occurred in agriculture over the last few generations.

None of the above would be possible without the support we get from a fantastic team of volunteers who help the program in a variety of ways. And we are especially grateful for the generous support the program received from donors this past year, including Governor and Mrs. Thompson, Dan K. Webb, ISMIE Mutual Insurance Company, Nicolay & Dart LLC, Jay and Susan Mogerman, Gary D. Burgard, Nils R. Thunman, Abner Mikva, Corboy & Demetrio, P.C., Tyrone Fahner, Carol and John Walter, Michael and Lucinda McClain, Jim & Susan Seiber, Eli's Cheesecake Company, and Ariel Investments.

We encourage everyone to check out our progress at www.oralhistory.illinois.gov, where you'll find over 600 interviews.

Approximately 450 members attended the Members Only Exhibit Preview of “Undying Words: Lincoln 1858-1865” at the ALPLM in November, 2014. The event was the official start of the year-long celebration of the museum’s 10th Anniversary.

Members and guests at the November 2014 exhibit opening included (from left) Patricia and Richard Weaver, Teresa and Albert Paulek, and Peggy and Dean Bartling.

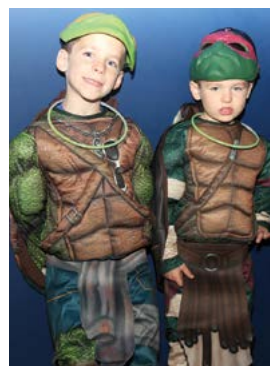

Members Chris and Allison Ellis along with their children Elijah and Clayton Ellis and guest Ashley Garber at the exhibit opening.

Honorable Rodney Slater, former Secretary of Transportation for President Bill Clinton, Adam Green, Terrence Roberts, and Lincoln Leadership Prize recipient Ernest Green (of the Little Rock Nine) at the Lincoln Leadership Prize Dinner in May.

Master of Ceremonies and ALPLF Board member Bill Kurtis welcomed Lincoln Leadership Prize recipient Gloria Ray Karlmark (of the Little Rock Nine) to the stage to accept her award.

Costume Contest Winners: The 3rd annual Spooktacular Evening with Abe was a spectacular success, turning out hundreds of ghosts, goblins, princesses and even a Mr. Lincoln or two! The annual costume contest winners included Daelyn Jones-First Place; Parker Edmunson-Second; Olivia Passig-Third; Helen Wonsowski-Fourth, and Tasha Furtado-Fifth.

PAVERS

for Lincoln's Legacy

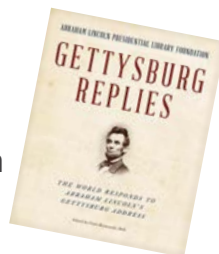

THE UNION SQUARE PROJECT

Abraham Lincoln needs your support. The Gettysburg Address needs your continued care and attention. We ask you now to highly resolve and commit yourself to doing so through a gift to the PAVERS for Lincoln's Legacy Campaign.

Your generous financial support of this campaign during the past fiscal year has helped us during these difficult economic times. If you have not already done so, there is still time to purchase your paver and continue helping us to ensure that the Lincoln legacy is not simply an oral one, but one which can be permanently viewed and experienced in very real and tangible ways. Please take a moment right now to CEMENT your affection for President Lincoln and honor the man who, like those at Gettysburg, gave the last full measure of devotion and who gave his life, so that the nation might live.

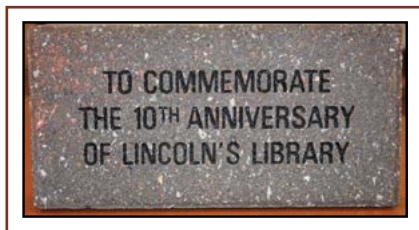

Giving Options:

- Double Plus – 12" x 12"
PLUS EDITOR AUTOGRAPHED First Edition of Gettysburg Replies ($1,000)
- Single Plus – 6" x 12"
PLUS First Edition of Gettysburg Replies ($500)
- Double – 12" x 12" ($300)
- Single – 6" x 12" ($125)

(Inscription 12x12: Maximum 5 lines, 22 characters per line including spaces. Inscription 6x12: Maximum 3 lines, 22 characters per line including spaces.)

Sample paver. Engraved Pavers to be installed in the Union Square Park across from the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum.

Did you miss out on the recent installation of Pavers for Lincoln's Legacy?

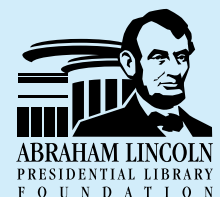

Visit www.ALPLM.org and Cement your affection for President Lincoln today!

Our Lasting Gratitude

Posterity

Founding Charter and Lincoln Legacy Society Members

BEFORE THE BANDS PLAYED, THE BANNERS WAVED, AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES CUT THE RIBBON TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE MOST VISITED PRESIDENTIAL FACILITY IN THE NATION—OUR FOUNDING CHARTER MEMBERS STEPPED UP TO PUT THEIR NAME ON HISTORY. AS OUR FISCAL YEAR COMES TO A CLOSE, THE FOUNDATION WOULD LIKE TO ONCE AGAIN EXTEND OUR LASTING GRATITUDE FOR YOUR BELIEF IN THE PROJECT THAT SINGULARLY CHANGED THE LANDSCAPE OF DOWNTOWN SPRINGFIELD AND IS WELL ON ITS WAY TO HAVING EDUCATED THREE MILLION VISITORS SO FAR.
